

Inspector Kylie Walsh
Operations Support Coordinator
SA Police

Kylie is currently employed by SAPOL in the capacity of the Operations Support Coordinator for the Southern Operations Service. Southern Operations Service is responsible for the policing of an area covering south of the River Torrens through to the South-East and the Riverland. Her role is to manage the coordination of Southern Operations Support Services comprising, Southern Traffic Enforcement Section, Southern Operations Tactical Unit and Southern Operations Service Relief Unit. The members of these sections are deployed across the south of the state to provide support and drive operations dedicated to preventing and reducing crime; and reducing road fatalities and incidents of serious crash.

Kylie joined SAPOL in 1989 and graduated in 1990. She has been posted to Port Adelaide Local Service Area as a patrol officer, Child Abuse Investigator and General CIB Investigator. She has also worked at the Sexual Assault Investigation Section, the Vice and Gaming Task Force, Communications Branch, the Police Academy, Project Compass and Media Section.

Kylie has completed a Bachelor of International Studies, majoring in Politics at Adelaide University. She has also completed an Advanced Diploma in Policing, the Inspector Qualification Program, the Frontline Leadership Course and the Detective Training Course as part of her internal promotional studies for SAPOL. Kylie is currently studying a Graduate Certificate in Applied Management through the Police Management Development Program in New South Wales and hopes to complete an MBA in the future.

Kylie has been an active participant in the sporting community with involvement in a range of local sporting organisations. Her hobbies include watching AFL football, running, cycling and walking her dog Charlie on the beach. When Kylie is not studying or working she enjoys reading novels, critiquing restaurants, drinking fine wine, talking politics and cooking for family and friends.
